BACKGROUND

Mogau was born in a very small village called Mogoto within the Zebediela district of the Limpopo province in South Africa. She moved to Johannesburg at the age of 5 where she would be raised by her maternal grandmother and grew up as sisters with her aunt who was only 5 months older than her. Mogau attended Piet Van Vuuren Primary school in Brixton and received an academic bursary to attend St. Mary's School for girls in Waverly where she was a weekly boarder for her entire high school career.

It is in high school where Mogau discovered her love for theatre and drama, for both on stage as well as off stage roles. She decided to take Drama, History and Geography as her major subjects through High school. Mogau was a part of the school choir, the drama club as well as the marimba club but also played A team Netball and 1st team Basketball. Mogau assisted in numerous school play productions where she learnt the basics of theatre production from stage directing and management, stage lighting and acting.

Mogau holds a degree in AudioVisual Communication (Film and Television) at the University of Johannesburg.
